I Background

Scope of Proceeding

1. Cable & Wireless (West Indies) Limited (C&W) is a licensed telecommunications network operator in Anguilla. C&W is the incumbent operator and received a new license on 14 December 2004.
2. Caribbean Cable Communications Anguilla Limited (CCC) is a licensed telecommunications network operator in Anguilla and received their license on 14 December 2004.
3. The national regulatory framework provides for an ‘integrated’ public telecommunications service which requires that all public networks be interconnected. Section 5(1) of the Interconnection and Access to Facilities Regulations 2004 (IAF Regulations 2004) stipulates that every operator or service provider has a duty to interconnect with other service providers.
1. Section 11 (1) of the IAF Regulations 2004 stipulates the timeframe within which a copy of an interconnection agreement is to be submitted to the Commission. It reads:

‘Within twenty-eight (28) days after the parties to a negotiation regarding interconnection have concluded an interconnection agreement, the operator or service provider that responded to the initial request for interconnection shall submit a copy of such agreement to the Commission for its approval’.
4. Pursuant to section 17(2)(e) of the Telecommunications Act (2003) (the Act 2003) licensees must make an application to the Commission for an interconnection agreement to be approved under the Act (2003) and the related Regulations.
5. The Telecommunications Administrative Procedure Regulation 2004 (Procedure 2004) s28(1) establishes the documentation required to be filed with the Commission—

- (a) a letter requesting approval and setting out fully—*
 - (i) the circumstances leading up to the execution of the agreement;*

Public Utilities Commission of Anguilla

- (ii) the purpose and effect of the agreement;*
 - (iii) the proposed effective date of the agreement;*
 - (iv) the reasons why approval would be in the public interest; and*
 - (v) any other comments that may be of assistance in reviewing the application;*
- (b) a copy of the proposed agreement, as executed by the parties; and*
- (c) any supporting documentation required by the practice of the Commission.'*

The Proceeding

6. The Commission in Telecom Decision PUC 2005-102 dated 22 November 2005, paragraphs 9 and 35, recommended certain prices be included in interconnection agreements.
7. C&W filed for approval with the Commission a proposed Interconnection Agreement between C&W and CCC dated 30 November 2005. In addition, C&W filed a 'Supplemental Agreement' dated 30 November 2005 between CCC and C&W with the Commission for approval. The 'Supplemental Agreement' provides for the provision of an ISDN PRI line by C&W to CCC.
8. The Commission directed C&W to provide the ISDN PRI line to CCC as a means of providing interim interconnection until such time as a permanent facility is provided by C&W in the form of a 'Optical *in-Span Joining Service. This facility is expected to be provided by March 2006.
9. In their letter of 30 November 2005 to the Commission, C&W submits that The parties have agreed that the 'Interconnection Agreement*' is to be effective upon execution and submission to the Commission and that the 'Agreement' conforms to the Commission's Telecom Decision PUC 2005-IOland 102.

II Commission Analysis and Findings
